An aerial, black and white photograph of Marple-Newtown High School. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a complex roofline featuring several gables and flat sections. It has numerous windows, some of which are grouped in rows. A large, dark, rounded tree is situated to the left of the building. A paved area, likely a parking lot, is visible in the foreground and to the right of the building. The overall image has a vintage, slightly grainy quality.

Memories 1948

Published by the Senior Class

Marple-Newtown High School

Newtown Square, Pennsylvania

Foreword

“To prevent time from fictionizing that which we prefer to remember as fact—this book is offered.”

Here in Marple-Newtown, as in other schools all over America, youth is taught how to think, not what to think. Certain high ideals have been instilled in our lives. The ever-present “guiding hands” of our teachers, parents, and fellow students have directed us and will continue to lead us towards more helpful, well-rounded lives.

This is our record of the past—a book of many golden memories—our “Memories of 1948.”

To Our Mothers

All of us can turn back the pages of our childhood and find one whom we look to as a friend, a guide, a refuge. We cannot hope to express the value of such a person to us, but we can set aside some slight tribute in appreciation of such endless, sympathetic understanding. In humble respect, we, the Class of 1948, dedicate this journal to our mothers, to whom we owe all the successful accomplishments of our school years.

Seniors Leave Happy Memories

In the years to come, as we, the Seniors of 1948, look back over our Yearbook, we shall remember the things we have done to make this a memorable year. Our Halloween party tested the cooperative spirit of the class. We're still wondering where all that cider and those ginger snaps disappeared to.

Later in the fall, our mothers helped us to put on a successful card party. The fellows will long remember how hard they worked for this affair.

Our Christmas party with the juniors in the library furnished us with lots of good laughs and some strong cigars.

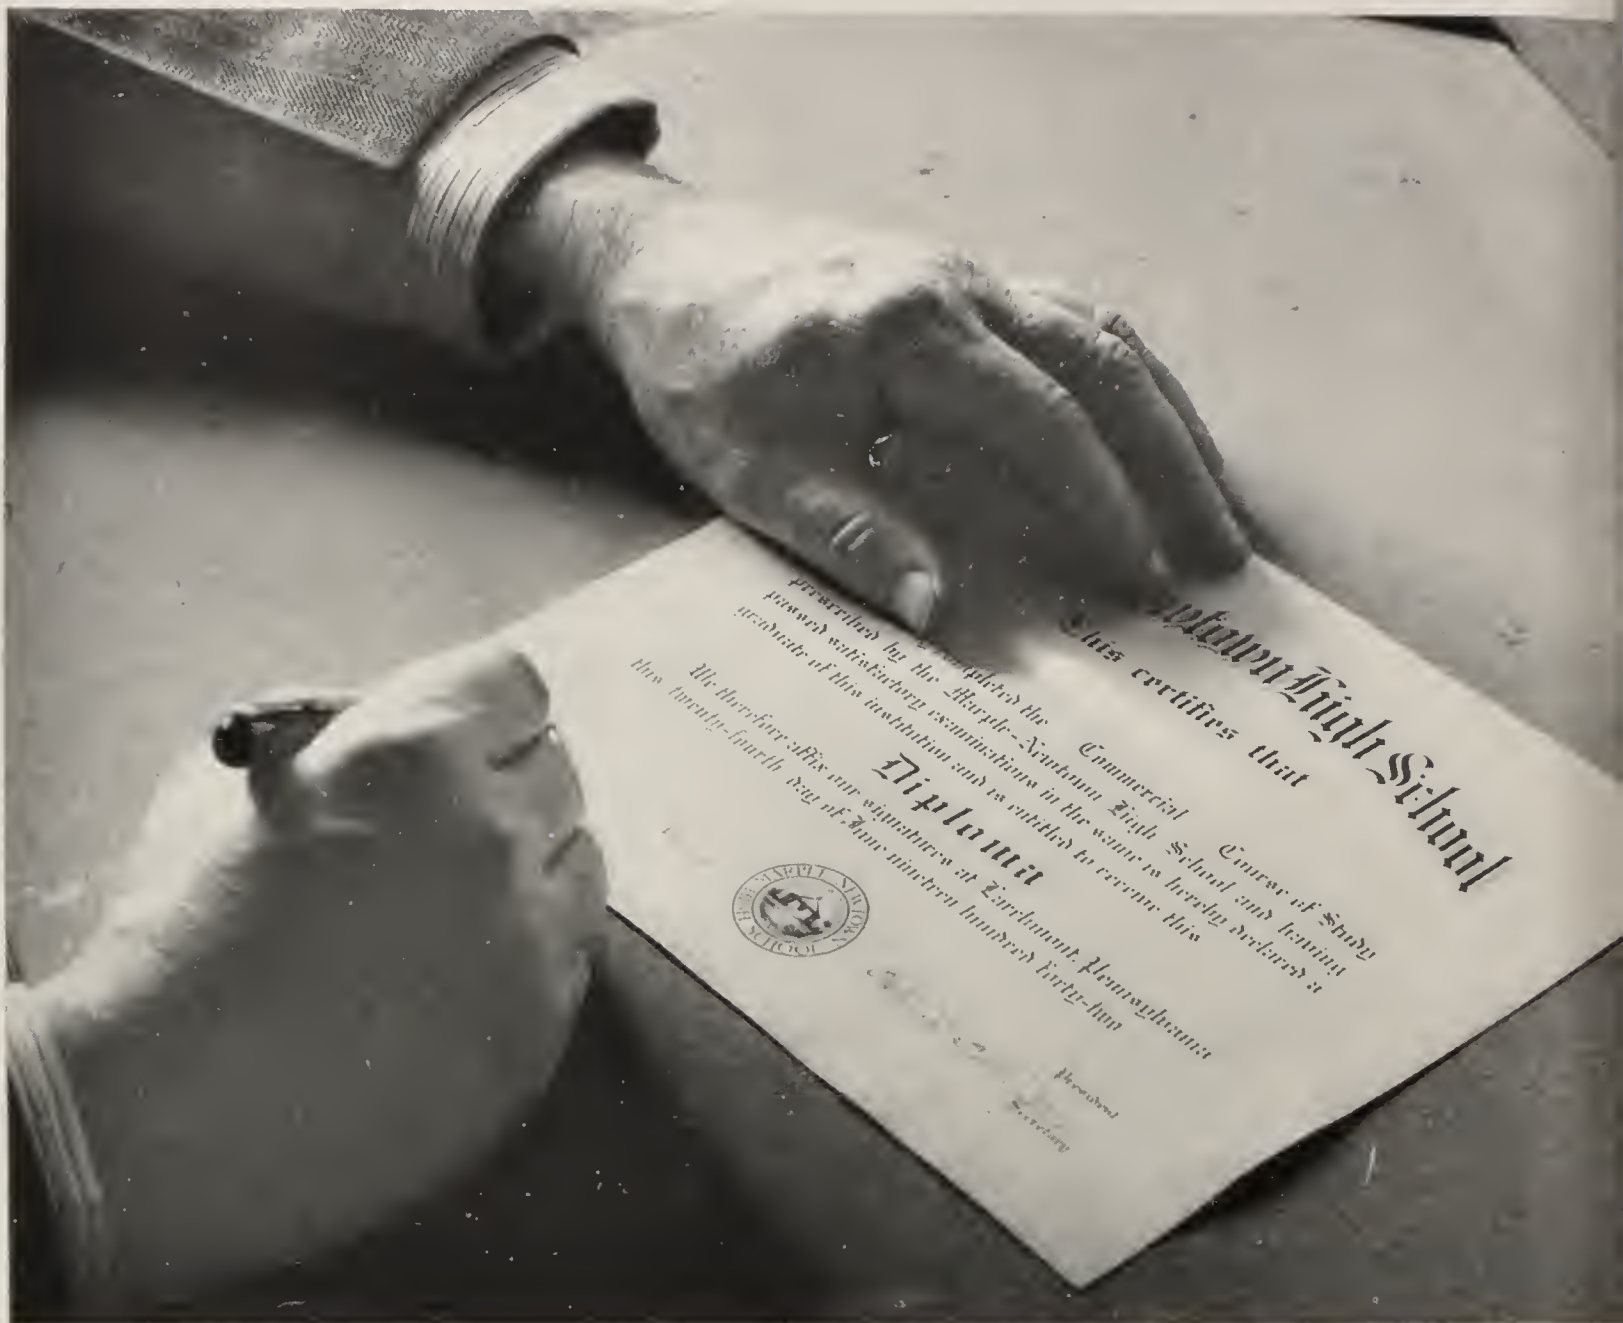

Discussion on the New York trip, the chicken supper, and the financing of our yearbook occupied many of our homeroom periods. Our big ideas and skimpy funds challenged all of us to put forth our best efforts. A record crowd of 975 persons enjoyed the chicken dinner.

Some of us can write, "Finis," to our school days, but others will be having more fun and work ahead of them in college.

To all of you good pals of 1948, the yearbook staff wishes its best in the years to come.

The Administration of our school is, for the most part, in the hands of our Board of Directors, Principal, and teachers. There are two general practices with respect to pupil participation in the management of school affairs: (1) participation through the student council, and (2) participation through various pupil committees and groups created from time to time to meet specific needs.

School Board Considers Our Interests

The Marple-Newtown Joint School Board, a body of men very important to the functioning of our school, is not as often recognized as it should be.

This job requires much careful planning and many times calls for wise decisions from its members. They must be constantly thoughtful of our welfare as students of Marple-Newtown High School. Every month the school board meets to talk over the business of our school and to plan for coming events.

For these jobs and for the many advantages which have been ours through the competent guidance of our school board, we extend our sincere thanks.

Principal's Message

"Pupils in junior and senior high schools are not inclined to be told." The foregoing words appear in an article designed for the instruction of high school teachers and set forth one of the commonly recognized characteristics of boys and girls in our secondary schools. Granting the correctness of the above statement it behooves our pupils to realize the efforts being made by their teachers and parents to remedy the lack of self-directive powers that pupils must of necessity have due to their lack of life-experience.

Cooperation of pupils with their elders in these efforts for their better guidance will be repaid richly. Many pitfalls of various kinds will be avoided. Moral guidance will settle many doubtful points in the field of right and wrong. Educational guidance will direct a boy or girl into areas of educational effort more nearly attuned to their unique abilities. Vocational advice may point the way into the type of life-work that will not only pay the greatest material returns but also furnish the largest amount of happiness.

By paying serious attention to the advice of their teachers and parents in all areas in which it may be offered, every pupil will have a vastly increased chance of being placed upon the road that leads to a full and successful life.

It is my earnest wish that every member of the Class of 1948 may find this road and travel upon it through all those years that stretch ahead.

Your sincere friend,

JAY W. Worrall, Supervising Principal

Throughout Our Classes

guidance is carried on by the whole teaching staff and in home room discussion. Health, educational, social, civic, and recreational guidance stimulates pupils to the acquisition of worthwhile skills, attitudes, ideals, and interests which result in behavior desirable for the individual and society.

Our Class Will

We, the Class of 1948, being in sound mind and disposing mood, do declare this to be our last will and testament.

In the following manner we dispose of our possessions:

Virginia Baskin leaves her friendly nature to Grace Lincoln and Muriel Heppenstall.

To Betty Ketchledge, Louise Welsand wills her hockey stick, and to Mildred Wessel, her interest in the orchestra.

Lois Troupe bequeaths her tricky basketball shots to Barbara Peel.

Barbara Peters' interest in V.F.M.A. are left to Dolores D'Onofrio, who can put it to good use.

To Bob Young, John Lutz leaves his shyness with the girls.

Janet Kieme leaves her many boy friends to Gloria Nilan and her roller skates to Helen McLane.

Janet Flood's hidden mischievous nature is willed to Joan Collins.

Jeanne Grover inherits Marie Martino's and Arnold Oraziatti's artistic nature.

To Joan Livingston goes Joan Mander's fiery, but cute nature.

Gordon Thomas leaves his interest in science and Mr. Baldelli to Russell Schweitzer and Tom Tull.

Bob Nash, the Romeo of the Class of '48, wills his way with the girls to Ed Gorman, and his loud, long laugh to Al Roberts.

Donna Frazer's corny jokes are left to Shirley Holloway and Joe Mac Laren, who already have enough of their own.

Gloria Harvey bequeaths to Nina Butler her sharp clothes and nice appearance.

To Joan Buckley, Terry Hall leaves her happy days spent in Media.

Frank Ballaron leaves his long lankiness to Teddy Muehlmann, who really doesn't need it.

Harold Taylor leaves his snapshot albums to Don Tarleton.

Jean Collins wills to Frank Capotosto her love for dogs.

Kay Keenly and Gladys Michener are willed Esther Murphy's muscles.

Harry Gorman wills his curly blond hair to Richard Wood and his basketball star to Harry Rambo.

To Emma Jean Plank and Janet Hollis, Jean Dennin leaves her shorthand notes.

To Pat Newby, is left Burton Hartenstine's skill with plastics.

Joyce Steer and Gerry Shaver leave their outside interests to Arlene Little.

Max Bishop's skill with a baseball is left with John Mackey and Paul Herbert.

Dot Wiggins gives her typing speed into the capable fingers of Margaret Stone.

John Harris takes over Bill Thomas' quick answers in math.

To Mildred Wood, go Gloria Civitella's quick smile and gay spirit.

In order to help her make more noise, Jane Thompson leaves Barbara Ann Ebersole her bubble gum.

Since Ralph Shupard enjoys playing post office, Ralph Bailey leaves him his interests in this field.

Ruth Gartner's love for flowers is handed down to Irene Homsher and her knitting needles to Peggy Parrish.

Bill Pennock passes on his interest in new cars to Bob Worrell.

Fred Wendig passes on to Donald Ealy his gift of gab.

Helen Reardon gladly wills her English difficulties to Hugh McMillen, who has enough of his own.

To the faculty, we will our gratefulness and appreciation for their guidance and helpfulness throughout the years.

To the underclassmen, we leave our best wishes and happy times together.

To the janitors, the senior fellows leave their thanks for the use of the boiler room.

To Mr. Worrall, we leave our deepest regret that although we have risen we have not as yet passed out.

Juniors Have Busy Year

Our third year in high school and our fifth at Marple-Newtown has probably been the busiest and most progressive of them all.

In early fall we initiated the greatest magazine drive in M.N. history. Two inspired teams, captained by Mildred Wessell and Tom Tull, rose to great heights in selling more than two thousand dollars' worth of subscriptions.

December was highlighted by the arrival of our class rings and the Christmas party with the seniors.

With the New Year came crowded class meetings for planning the Junior Prom, which was held on May twenty-second. We all pitied our president, Hugh McMillen, who had to listen patiently to all those arguments.

This year we welcomed Sydney Dutton, Barbara Ann Ebersole, Grace Lincoln, Helen McLane, Gloria Nilan, and Jim Gausch into our class; but we were sorry to say goodbye to Bob Nace, Ned Wilson, Norman Du Aime, and Jack Worthington.

In our Junior year, we've set records, we've contributed heavily to extra-curricular activities, we've achieved many things; but we'll remember it was only possible with the guidance of our advisors, Miss Yeingst and Miss D'Amelio.

Sophomore Hop a Big Success

As we look back over the past school year, we realize how much more support we have given to our school and to our class than we were able to give last year.

The Sophomore Class had many participants in various girls' and boys' sports, Student Council, Debating team, Orchestra, and many other important school associations. The Class of '50 has been represented at several statewide conventions at Temple University.

The Soph Hop, which everyone had a good time getting ready for, was a huge success.

All in all we have had a very profitable and successful year under the able guidance of Mrs. Marlino and Mr. Kachur. We are all looking forward to our Junior year when we shall be able to participate still further in school affairs.

Our Ninth Graders Show Plenty of Pep

Many ninth grade students participated in junior and senior high school sports and received awards for outstanding achievements.

The ninth grade had a very successful dancing club under the direction of Mr. Olson.

A few students played in the orchestra, sang in the glee club, and took part in the Candle Light Service.

To improve our classroom we have appointed several committees.

Our Freshman Frolic, given April 9, was a great success this year.

This year we have welcomed Connie Embry, Robert Marletter, Hope Shalles, Robert Barone, Allen Pratt, Eleanor Haynes, Richard Reynolds, Larry Worrell, Alice Jones, Barbara Day, Joan Greer, David Margerum, Boyd Torelli, and Aline Creaufmiller.

Altogether we have enjoyed and profited much by this year in the Freshman Class.

We have now finished our second year in junior high school at Marple-Newtown, and we feel as though we have accomplished something.

This year the eighth grade has taken part in many activities such as orchestra, basketball, football, hockey, and baseball.

We were glad to welcome to our class three new members: Patsy Cope, Dorraine Montgomery, and Ted Hall.

In all we have had a very fine year and are looking forward to coming back next year and trying to set an even better record.

Seventh Graders Think of Others

MR. WILLIAM D. RICHUTE, Junior High
MR. EDGAR RAFFENSPERGER, Junior High

Last September, thirty-six timid seventh graders began a new, different, confusing school life. Little by little they caught on to the new routine. Now they feel that they are a part of the school and its activities.

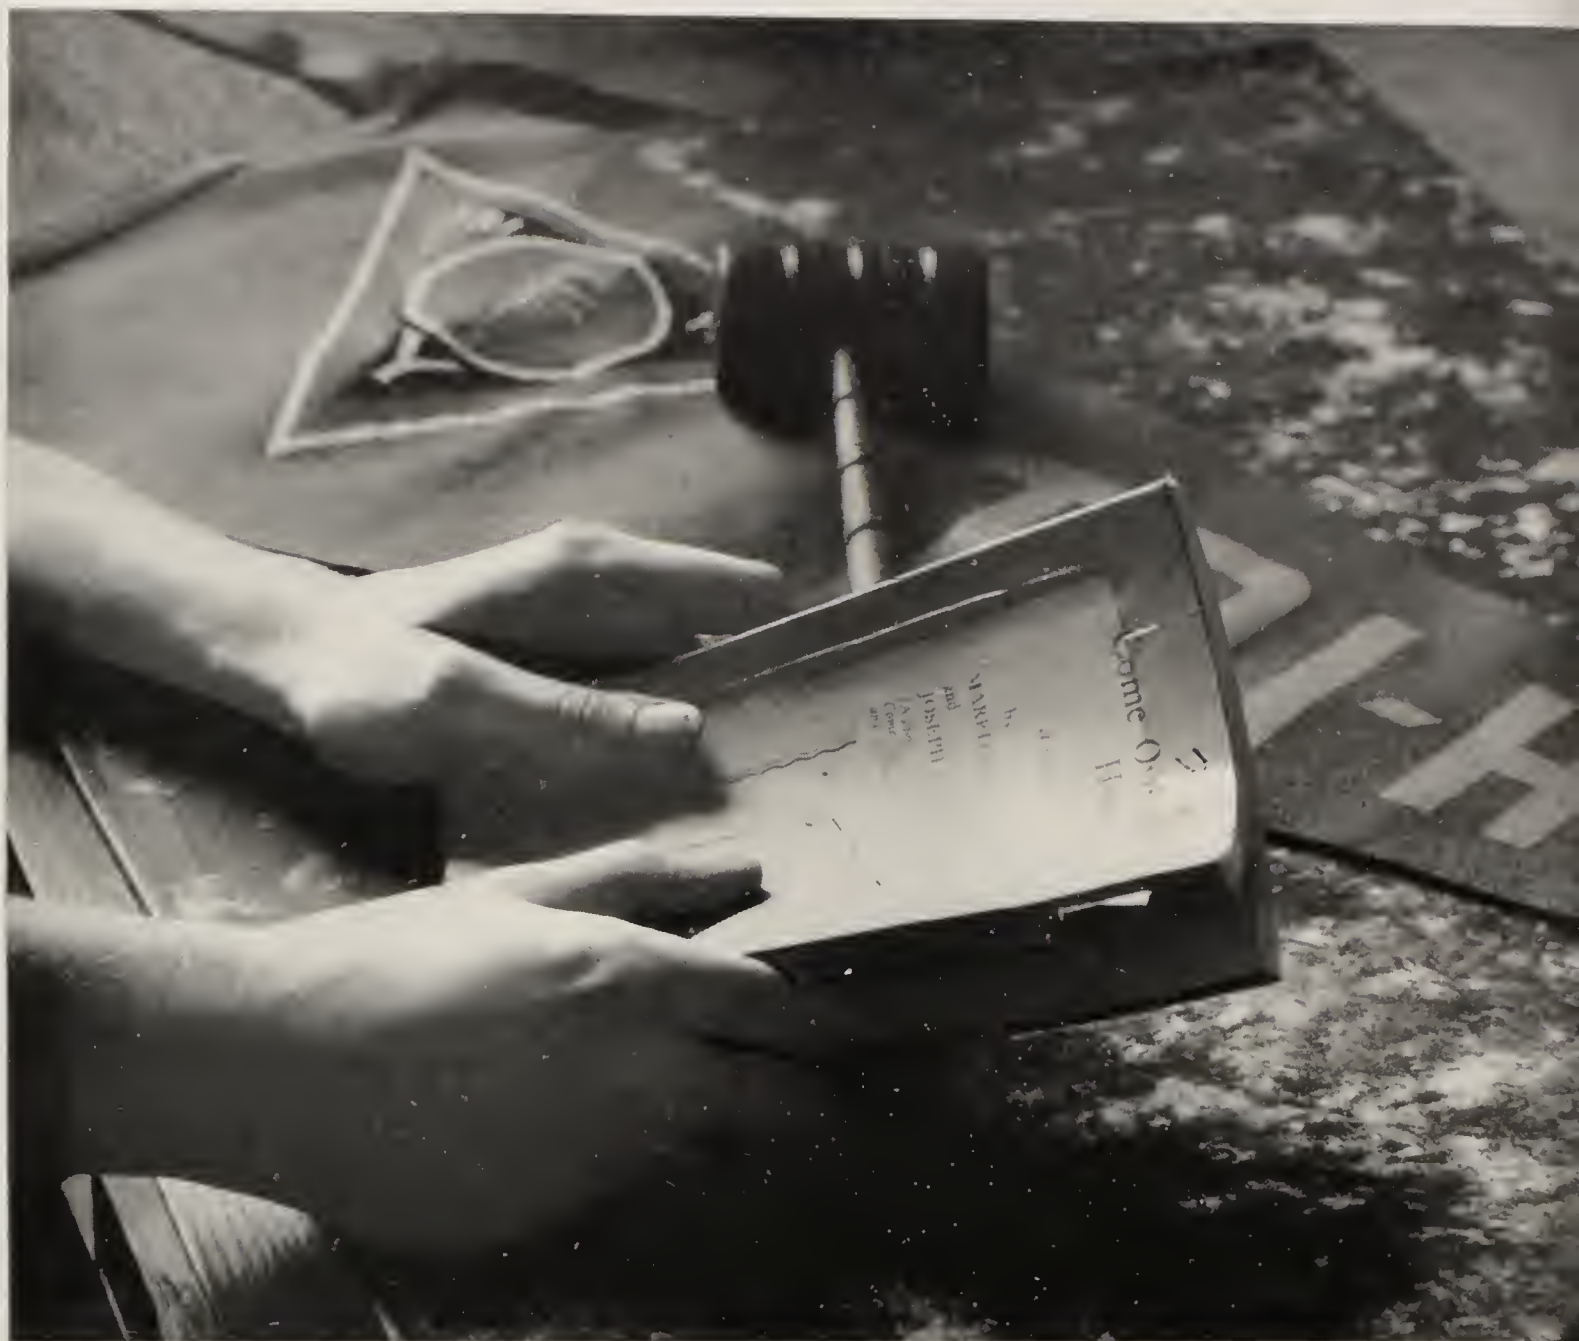

Late in the fall, M-N had a talent show in which more members from the seventh grade participated than from any other class.

The 7A group collects dues every week. Part of the money was used the day before the Christmas vacation for a big party with trimmings for the room and refreshments.

Later, two CARE packages were sent to a little girl in France.

This year's work is only a small beginning of the work that the Class of '55 hopes to do for good old M-N.

Marple-Newtown

Our School Activities

in addition to having recreational values also offer many opportunities for worthwhile educational experiences in informal social activities carried on in home rooms, classes, or clubs; more formal parties or entertainments as class dances, the school play, etc.; outdoor activities such as play day, trips, and exchange programs.

Student Council Directs Democratic Government

Student-teacher planning was back of much of the work and many school projects carried out by the council this year.

The Student Council set the calendar of the year's activities, conducted a very successful Athletic Funds Drive, decided a few major problems about the sophomore and freshman dances, sponsored a Spring Festival, voted on the Varsity lettermen, and arranged next year's athletic schedules.

The officers of the Student Council were Lou Snelling, President; Nina Butler, Vice-President; Gloria Harvey, Secretary; and Horace Hatton, Treasurer.

School Paper Eagerly Looked For

The Mar News started off with a bang under a new adviser, Mrs. Marlino.

Many new columns were added such as the "Tattler," "Round About," "Honor Roll" and also many featured articles. Cartoons and pictures have done much to liven the paper.

The staff feel they have accomplished a paper worthy of much praise!

“Come Over to Our House”

This gay, amusingly clever comedy was presented December 12. Rehearsals were much enjoyed, especially the Executive Sessions at Howard Johnson's afterward.

The large cast representing the entire Senior High performed splendidly. People screamed with laughter, and many thought it our best performance.

Another tremendous success, the party at B.J.'s for the cast and friends, was enjoyed by everyone.

Our Monitors Do a Good Job

The monitors have a rather thankless job, but they all carried out their duties exceedingly well this year. Despite the hard looks and remarks they got when they said, "No running," or "Single file, please," they bore it bravely and smiled through it all.

Because of the watchfulness and untiring effort of the monitors, there was a surprisingly low amount of confusion and disorder in the buildings.

We are grateful to them and want to thank them for their friendly service to the school.

Debaters Handle a Difficult Subject Well

Debating on the subject, "Resolved: That the Federal Government should require compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in all basic American industries," both our negative and affirmative teams made a commendable showing.

Teams debated against were Ellis College, Ridley Township, Nether Providence, and Media. These debating squads, sponsored by the Media Rotary Club, tried for the George T. Lewis Prize. This, a bond of twenty-five dollars, was presented to Ellis College, who had the highest score. The winner was also given an opportunity to try for a scholarship among state and national schools.

Much credit is due our team for its second year in existence.

Cheering Section Greatly Improved

"Sis! Boom! Ah!" "Harry, Harry, he's our man!" With the sound of these first phrases, "Livy" and her peppy squad inspired the teams to victory and boosted our morale when the going got tough.

Instead of removing his earmuffs, everyone donned them as he entered the school in the morning. Loud shouts and cries echoed through the gym. At first we feared it might be Indians, but finally we became accustomed to the early morning cheerleading practices.

Much credit was due Mrs. Cook for her conscientious drilling of the squad. Their timing and motions have greatly improved, and they certainly contributed much toward bringing recognition to our school.

New Members Add to Orchestra

The Marple-Newtown Orchestra has improved a great deal this year, under the leadership of Mrs. Kurtz. Progress has been rapid, and membership has increased.

This year our orchestra has played at many school activities: assemblies, school play, Christmas candlelight service, Spring Festival, and for the first time at Marple School's May Day celebration.

The student body has a feeling of pride for the great improvement in our high school orchestra.

Glee Club Creates Outstanding Talent

The Glee Club, capably led by Mrs. Kurtz, has done much to gain Marple-Newtown wider recognition among other schools. This year's beautiful candlelight service featured the portrayal of scenes of the songs by still, human pictures.

Another new item this year was the Spring Festival put on entirely by the Glee Club. It was a musical variety show with gay songs, tap dancing, and ballet.

As a reward for all these activities, outstanding members who made definite contributions will be awarded gold pins.

The Glee Club has at last been recognized as one of the leading student activities at Marple-Newtown.

M-N's Clubs

Marple-Newtown's clubs provide a varied interest other than sports, and they are open to all students.

The Bridge Club under the direction of Mr. Oselinsky has had a good time throughout the year playing and learning how to play Bridge and Pinochle.

Those members of the Library Club have very ably helped to run the library by checking in books, returning books to the shelves, and keeping the records straight.

Mrs. Graham's Art Club has been making some very beautiful articles for themselves and their friends. They have also worked in clay and made some paintings.

Needles have been flying fast in the Knitting Club. Under the direction of Mrs. Marlino, the girls have learned to knit, improved their knitting, and made some socks, sweaters, and mittens.

The Ping Pong tables have been well used throughout the year by Mr. Harvey's club. They have organized a tournament, and some of them have become quite skilled at this game.

M. N.'s dance fiends could surely find a club to suit them, since there are two organized dancing clubs, a Freshman dancing club led by Mr. Olsen and a Senior High club under the direction of Mr. Richute.

Those interested in acting and stagework found plenty to interest them in Mr. Brown's Dramatic Club, where they have studied and acted out plays.

The Shop Club has kept itself busy making plastic ornaments and household articles which would dazzle anyone's eye.

For food lovers among the boys, it is interesting to note that Miss Chase's Cooking Club has turned out with some really fine dishes. The girls, it is also to be noted, were the chief samplers.

Under the leadership of Mr. Baldelli, the Science Club, which is one of M. N.'s most noteworthy clubs, has learned many new things in the field of scientific research.

Our best known and most outstanding club is Tri-Hi-Y. This club consists of fifty members from the Senior High. These girls ran our canteen, visited the Chester Day Nursery with a Christmas party, staged a party at the Main-Line Y at Ardmore, and sponsored a Mother-Daughter banquet in the high school cafeteria. Tri-Hi-Y is under the direction of Miss Yeingst and Miss D'Amelio.

The Gym Club, where forty-two boys from the junior and senior high school participate in athletic activities, suitable to season, is under Mr. Pittman's guidance. The boys are placed on teams, so that they will be playing against opponents of equal ability and in their own age groups.

The junior high girls' glee club under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Kurtz has had a very successful year. The officers of this club are as follows: President, Ruth Burton; Vice President, Shirley Delany; Secretary-Treasurer, Nancy Swartz. Some of the activities they engaged in were a doggie roast at the home of Eve Coan, a candlelight service at Christmas, and a luncheon at Mrs. Kurtz's home followed by a skating party. Then in the spring we took part in the Music Festival by doing a scene from a Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta.

Varsity Football Has Fair Season

Under the dependable coaching of Mr. Richute and Mr. Harvey, our team fought through for a fairly successful season.

Led by Jim Knapp and Bob Nash, two of the best offensive backs that M. N. has had in a long time, the boys hit their stride in the beginning of the season, but the last half of our schedule proved disastrous.

For the first time in four years, we gained a thrilling upset victory over Sharon Hill, by trouncing them 20 to 7.

Next year, Coach Richute will face quite a task in rebuilding an almost new team, because eight of the starting eleven will be lost.

The lettermen graduating are Dan Bishop, Burt Hartenstine, John Lutz, Jim Knapp, Bob Nash, Lou Snelling, and Bill Thomas.

M. N. A. C. Treats Again

The M.N.A.C. gave the Senior High Football Team their fourth annual banquet on December 16, 1947. The boys really put on the feed bag, and everybody enjoyed it.

James Knapp, for the second straight year, received the Joseph T. Mullray Award, for the "most valuable player." John Lutz received the newly formed Bill Prichard Award, for the "outstanding lineman."

Hockey Girls Have Fun

How well the girls recall the bright, sunny September days which marked the beginning of the hockey season!

The practices and games left many memories of sprained ankles, scratches, black-and-blue marks as well as rosy cheeks, but every minute of it was loads of fun.

This year the girls had three victories and five defeats. Although we did not win many of our games, we had the spirit; and the girls did much effective playing. The cooperation of the coach, Mrs. Cook, and every girl down to the Second team was outstanding.

Those lost by graduation this year are Gloria Harvey, Gerry Shaver, Virginia Baskin, Janet Flood, Gloria Civitella, Louise Welsand, Joyce Steer, Joan Mander, Janet Kieme, and Barbara Peters.

Welsand Receives New Hockey Award

The award for those girls excelling in sportsmanship and performance was, as in the past, a small gold M-N Athletic Pin. Mr. Worrall presented these in a special Awards Assembly at the end of the Hockey-Football Season.

At the Annual Football Banquet, Louise Welsand received the Miller-Harvey Award in recognition of her "doing the most for her team."

M-N Places Third in Suburban Five League

Through the fine coaching of Mr. Pittman, the Varsity Basketball Squad came out on top with a better than .500 average, and also a third place position in the Suburban Five League.

Ed Feldkircher was high scorer with 157 points, while Harry Rambo and Bob Nash were next, each contributing 102 points. The boys played excellent ball at all times, but because of lack of reserves, they couldn't keep up the pace.

Mr. Olson's Jay Vees established a fine record, and also filled every game with thrills and spills. The squad consisted solely of Sophomores and Freshmen.

Varsity Lettermen Played Good Ball

The Varsity squad will be hard hit by graduation, since Bob Nash, Jim Knapp, Harry Gorman, Frank Ballaron, Dan Bishop, and Fred Wendig will be lost.

Marple-Newtown drew the Fords from Haverford, in the Kiwanis Tournament and lost to a score of 55-40. The Fords held a comfortable lead until the third quarter when the Tigers caught fire and came within two points of tying the score. Haverford poured it on in the last quarter, in spite of the futile efforts of our boys.

Those lettermen not in the picture are F. Wendig, J. Knapp, R. Young.

Peel and Robinson High Scorers for the Girls

Victory may not have been always with us, but there was great spirit and pep which helped our girls to fight to the end. The first sunbeams guided us to school for early practice, and we could be seen, many an evening, dragging our weary bodies home after practice.

Barbara Peel came out on top by scoring 97 points for our varsity. Barbara Robinson scored 61 points for the Jayvees.

"Hats off" to Coach Esther Cook for her patience with the girls and her help in making our season a memorable one.

Girls Choose Next Year's Captains

On March 24, the basketball season was officially closed with the Varsity and Junior Varsity players attending a big banquet. No awards were presented at the banquet because they were awarded later in assembly.

The following captains were chosen: Betty Ketchledge, Varsity; and Carol Sterling, Jay Vee.

Those lost through graduation are Gloria Harvey, Louise Welsand, Joan Mander, Joyce Steer, Janet Kieme, Janet Flood, Geraldine Shaver, Barbara Peters, Lois Troupe, and Betty Jane Friedrich.

Junior High Football Squad Defeats Springfield

A large group of junior high boys turned out for the first practice, and Mr. Pittman could easily see that he was going to have quite a job in building up a good team.

The boys not only turned in a fine seasonal record, but it might also be noted that Springfield, undefeated for three years, was finally upset by the Junior Tigers, 6 to 0.

Those boys earning their Junior High shields were J. Standen, L. Shaver, T. Fisher, J. Muirhead, R. Ewing, H. Ramsay, J. Snapp, D. Gorman, R. Comer, W. Blair, L. Worrell, and E. Shupard.
